

ZENMO

protects also your yacht

Significant reduction of service costs due to cyclic loading and unloading of boat batteries.

Signalprocessor controlled supervision of motor and gear noises recognizes possible faults early and avoids expensive repairs.

Access and alarming using international cellular telephony with the possibility to use your favorite GSM card.

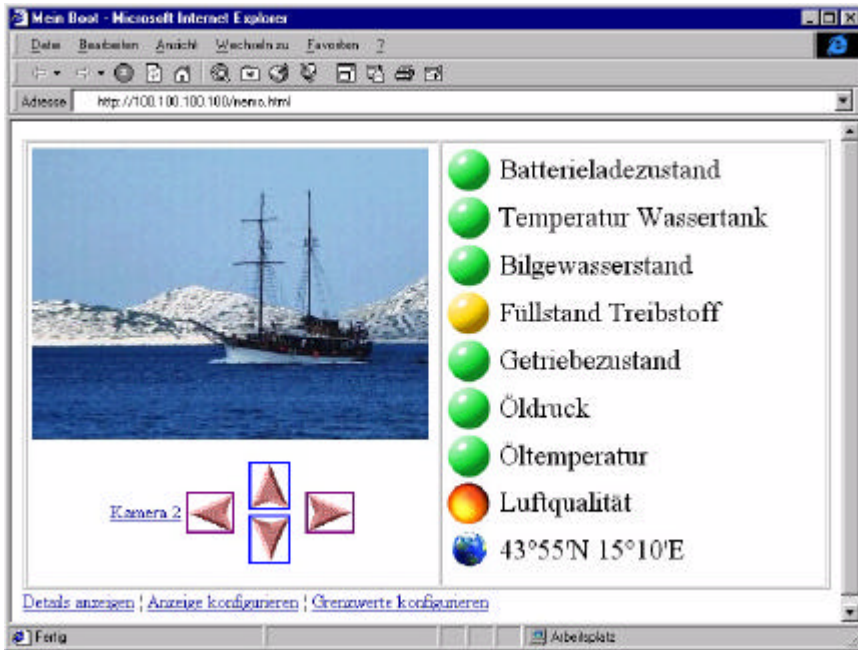

Transmission of photographs by means of built in camera interface.

Access the controller with your favorite browser like the internet.

- Gear and motor supervision*
- Oil pressure and oil temperature sampling*
- Loading of boat battery*
- Level and temperature of tank content*
- Bilge water supervision*
- Quality of air (CO, CO₂)*
- GPS for position monitoring*
- Burglar alarming*
- Monitoring of landing shocks*

Using your favorite internet browser you are able to access the controller from anywhere by using the built in GSM interface:

Easy controlling of the direction of the camera.

Alarming messages may be sent to your mobile phone or to the marina.

Easy recognition of faulty components by means of the SEAL ample principle.

- Configurable by internet browser directly or over GSM network
- Supervision of important parameters and alarming in case of reaching programmable limits
- Supervision of electrical, chemical and mechanical parameters
- Position monitoring with built in GPS interface
- Secure access due to MD5 password encrypting
- Several alarming possibilities like SMS, email, fax ...
- Monitoring and buffering of measurement values
- Extendable with field bus modules even for large ships

Technical details may be found in the appropriate data sheets.

A demonstration is available at our home page at www.seal.ch.

Further informations are available at:

Developped and produced by:

<http://www.seal.ch>
info@seal.ch

SEAL AG

Landstrasse 176

CH-5430 Wettingen 2

Tel.: +41 56 430 20 60 Fax: +41 56 430 20 65